

In-Kind Donation Guidelines

Thank you for considering an in-kind donation to The Buckeye Ranch. Your support of our mission to raise hope and restore healing for youth and families is greatly appreciated.

If you would like information on current needs and what types of donations we can accept, please visit buckeyeranch.org/get-involved/in-kind-donations/.

Please Note: In most cases, we cannot accept used clothing items and/or used goods unless otherwise requested. We ask that items be new at the time of drop off. If you have gently used items that we cannot accept, we have listed some organizations we understand will accept charitable goods.

ORGANIZATIONS ACCEPTING CHARITABLE DONATIONS

The organizations below are not affiliated with The Buckeye Ranch, we have listed them as a possible resource for your donations. Please reach out to the organization directly for more information about the items you have to donate and their policies and guidelines.
